Weddings and celebrations

We have a range of banqueting suites for parties of up to 150 and a civil ceremonies licence. We can accommodate intimate private dinners through to a reception for up to 150 guests. Just imagine an outdoor ceremony overlooking the ocean. Let's start the planning now!

Food and wine

There's a wonderful sense of tradition to our elegant restaurant, which was established in 1947. The menu, however, is modern and fresh – combining the best of local, seasonal ingredients with Continental influences and Frederick's specialities. Our team work exceptionally hard to produce fine food and an ambience that makes lunch or dinner in Frederick's one of the most enjoyable aspects of your stay in Bournemouth.

Meetings and events

We have seven meeting rooms with capacity for up to 150 delegates. If you're on business or looking for a venue to hold a meeting in the south of England, we have all the facilities you need, including well-equipped event suites. The Hotel is half a mile from the Bournemouth International Centre, one of the UK's primary venues for conferences, exhibitions and other events.

Leisure and spa

Whether you are here on business or for a holiday or short break, as a couple or with kids, there will be times when you prefer relaxing at the Hotel to going on a day trip. We've got all the leisure facilities you need, in the most relaxing of surroundings. Our leisure facilities include heated outdoor swimming pool, indoor swimming pool, gymnasium with cardio equipment and weights, sauna and spa pool.
